

Silent Night Vignette

Written by Kirstylee and Cassidy of momshavequestionstoo.com

Girl 1: Sister! (running into the room) Have you heard the great news? The Savior has been born! The shepherds said they saw a new star in the sky and that angels came and visited them announcing His birth.

Girl 2: The Savior? Really!? Where is he?

Girl 1: The shepherds said they followed the star and found him in a stable, lying in a manger. Look, I can see the star in the sky. It is so bright!

Girl 2: We should go see him! Do you think we would be invited?

Girl 1: Yes, I think we would be. Let's go right away.

(they start walking out)

Girl 2: Wait. (they stop) He is the Savior; we should bring him a gift.

Girl 1: But what could we possibly give to Him? We are so poor; we have nothing to give and He is the Savior.

Girl 2: (thinking for a moment) We have no objects of value for him, but we can sing for him! A lullaby is the perfect gift for an infant.

Girl 1: Yes, that will be perfect. We can sing about this beautiful night when the Savior was born. We can think of the words on the way. The star is shining right there; let's go.

(they walk out, then come back in as if in the stable with Mary, Joseph and Jesus)

Girl 2: Is this where we will find the Savior?

(acting as if someone has answered)

Girl 1: May I hold him?

(pretending to take a baby into her arms)

Girl 2: We wanted to bring him a gift, but we have no objects of value. May we give the gift of a song instead?

(act as if permission has been given)

(Girl 1 and 2 sing Silent Night, verse 3, actors and audience together)
