

Baby Preschool Pack

Fun activities for your toddler to help them get excited for the new baby!

Instructions for the Preschool Pack

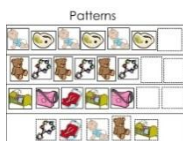

Cut out cards from both pages and use as a memory game.

Have the child trace along the lines.

Have the child color the pacifiers the correct color.

Have the child cut out the pieces on the bottom row and use them to finish the patterns above.

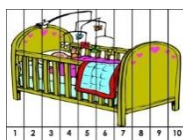

Do-a-dot or Pom Pom page: Have the child use a do-a-dot marker or pom-poms or stickers and fill in the circles.

Use a brad and a paper clip to turn this into a spinner. Have the child spin the clip and record the result on the following page. The first picture to get five spins wins!

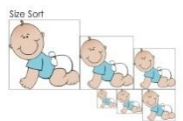

Have the child either use a clothespin to "clip" the right number or circle the number with a crayon.

Cut out the strips and mix up. Have the child put them back in order to re-create the picture.

Print on cardstock. Laminate if desired. Hole punch around each card every inch or so. Attach a piece of yarn or a shoelace to use for lacing.

Cut out each picture of the baby and have the child sort by size.

Cut out each of the pictures along the lines. Have the child put the puzzles together to complete the pictures.

Have the child draw a line to the matching item.

Have the child circle the item that is different in each row.

Have the child circle the word baby then count how many times it appears. Do the same with the letter b.

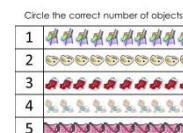

Have the child trace the letters to practice letter formation.

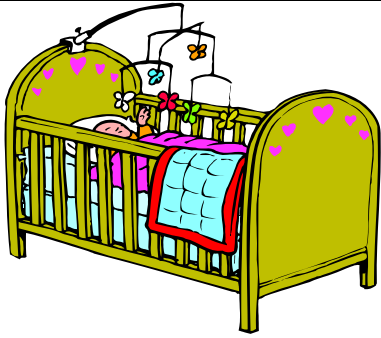

Have the child cut out along the lines.

Have the child trace the letters to practice letter formation.

Have the child circle the correct number of objects of objects in the corresponding row.
